

Leaders in the News

March 15, 2011

OMI Co Director Alejandro Baez, served as Medical Director for the Cancer walk "Caminantes por la Vida". The event took place March 12-13th in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. More than 40, 000 people participated in the largest cancer charitable event in the region.

The medical support scheme included more than 300 medical providers 5 fixed medical posts including a full service 10 bay clinic, 12 ambulances and one air medical helicopter.

Dr. Baez continues to serve as the prime OMI contact and programmatic leader for the Caribbean, Central and South America.

Caminantes por la Vida

